REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS:
SMALL PROJECTS

The Center for Diabetes Translation Research (CDTR) is soliciting applications for small, short-term pilot awards to address T3 or T4 research in the area of diabetes, prediabetes/metabolic syndrome, obesity prevention or treatment or lifestyle change. This $5000 funding opportunity will support well-focused secondary analyses to questions of interest relevant to the CDTR mission. A proposed project should present a testable hypothesis and clearly delineate the question being asked, detail the procedures to be followed, discuss how the data will be analyzed, and include how the project will advance future research.

Questions should be directed to Allie Phad at allisonphad@wustl.edu or 314-935-3005.

Applicants should fill out the attached application form and return to Allie Phad at allisonphad@wustl.edu by March 15, 2018.
PROJECT SUPPORT APPLICATION

Applicant Name:

Collaborator Name(s):

Project Title:

Project Period: (XX-XX-XXXX to XX-XX-XXXX)  Total Requested Funding: (up to $5,000)

Recommended Reviewers (names and contact information):

Department’s Grant Manager Contact Information:

Project Description:

Deliverables: (check all that apply)

• Grant application: ___
  o Submitted to what agency/foundation: _____________________________
  o Submitted by what date: ________

• Manuscript: ___
  o Submitted to what journal: _____________________________
  o Submitted by what date: ________

Briefly describe in one to two sentences:

• How is funding related to your plans for advancing your research?

• How is funding related to CDTR goals of diabetes and obesity prevention?

How will the budget be used? (Include a brief summary of plans for funding and brief justification)